THE OFFICIAL SOURCE FOR STAMP ENTHUSIASTS

2014 / Volume 19 / Quarter 3

A welcome

AS THE SEASON HEATS UP, people across towns and cities meander through stalls of fresh produce, handpicking ingredients for their next homemade meal or summer picnic. Summer fruits — cherries, blackberries, and tomatoes — ripen beneath the sun's warm glow. Neighbors and friends mingle among crates of heavy melons, sweet corn, and earthy green beans.

With farmers markets open for the summer, the Postal Service™ marks the season by issuing the Farmers Markets stamps — four designs that are as bright and colorful as the freshest fruits and veggies. Get a taste of the local food culture by finding a market near your neighborhood, or share your favorite market recipe through a handwritten letter.

And while you're escaping the summer sun, spend some quiet moments cultivating your collection with more of the latest issuances. Expanding the American Treasures series, the Hudson River School stamps applaud the American artists who studied in Thomas Cole's 19th century school, capturing the beauty of the landscape with brush and canvas. Continuing the beat of the Music Icons series, the Janis Joplin stamp remembers a soulful rock singer. And two military issuances — The War of 1812: Fort McHenry and The Civil War: 1864 — commemorate significant moments in our nation's history.

To save you time for enjoying all the perks of summer, we've made ordering simple: Just use the enclosed order form, call 1 800 782-6724, visit usps.com/shop, or shop with us at the new eBay store — ebay.com/stamps.

Wishing you a happy summer,

A self-supporting government enterprise, the U.S. Postal Service is the only delivery service that reaches every address in the nation, 150 million residences, businesses and Post Office Boxes. The Postal Service receives no direct support from taxpayers. With 36,000 retail locations and the most frequently visited website in the federal government, the Postal Service relies on the sale of postage, products and services to pay for operating expenses. Named the Most Trusted Government Agency five consecutive years and the sixth Most Trusted Business in the nation by the Ponemon Institute, the Postal Service has annual revenue of more than $68 billion and delivers nearly half the world's mail. If it were a private sector company, the U.S. Postal Service would rank 26th in the 2008 Fortune 500.

THE CIVIL WAR 1864 A Nation Touched with Fire

...it was a sight that is seldom seen to gaze upon the dead bodies of the enemy and to hear the cries for assistance and water... it was enough to break the heart of the most hardened....
Jeremiah Tate, 5th Alabama

...the Tecumseh reeled a little to starboard, her bow settled beneath the surface...her stern lifted high in the air...and the ship pitched out of sight like an arrow twanged from the bow.
Harrie Webster, USS Manhattan

You cannot make soldiers of slaves, nor slaves of soldiers.... The day you make soldiers of them is the beginning of the end of the revolution.
Howell Cobb, 16th Georgia

Some of these mornings bright and fair
Take my wings and cleave the air
Pharaoh's army got drowned
O Mary, don't you weep
Negro Spiritual

I have given the subject of arming the negro my hearty support...by arming the negro we have added a powerful ally. They will make good soldiers.
Ulysses S. Grant

THE CIVIL WAR 1862 A Nation Touched with Fire

Future years will never know
the seething hell and the black infernal background of countless minor scenes...and it is best they should not—the real war will never get in the books.
Walt Whitman

...the density of the smoke from guns and fire
rafts, the scenes passing on board our own ship and around us...it was as if the artillery
of heaven were playing upon the earth.
David G. Farragut, USS Hartford

The shrieks of the wounded and dying was terrible, but they rallied and came at us again and our men again awaited until they came in range and again arose and mowed them down...but they came again.
James C. Steele, 4th North Carolina

Oh! how proud you stood before me,
In your suit of blue,
When you vow'd to me and country,
Ever to be true.
"Weeping, Sad and Lonely" Lyrics by Charles C. Sawyer

Mr. Brady has done something to bring home to us the terrible reality and earnestness of war.
If he has not brought bodies and laid them in our door-yards and along the streets, he has done something very like it.

THE CIVIL WAR 1863
A Nation Touched with Fire

But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate—we can not consecrate—we can not hallow—this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract.
Abraham Lincoln

But then, 'tis past, the years are gone, I'll not call up their shadowy forms; I'll say to them, "Lost years, sleep on! Sleep on! nor heed life's pelting storms."
"Lorena"
Lyrics by Henry Webster

For a mile up and down the open fields before us the splendid lines...of the army of Northern Virginia swept down upon us. They came half way down this slope, wavered, began to fire, then to scatter and then to run, and how our men did yell, "Come on, Johnny, come on."
Rufus R. Dawes, 6th Wisconsin

...what armies and how much of war I have seen... what thousands of marching troops, what fields of slain, what prisons, what hospitals, what ruins, what cities in ashes, what hunger and nakedness, what orphanage, what widowhood, what wrongs and what vengeance.
Clara Barton

THE CIVIL WAR 1861
A Nation Touched with Fire

I'll trace these gardens o'er and o'er, Meditate on each sweet flower, Thinking of each happy hour, Oh, Johnny is gone for a soldier.
Traditional lament

The American people and the Government at Washington may refuse to recognize it for a time, but the "inescapable logic of events" will force it upon them in the end, that the war now being waged in this land is a war for and against slavery.
Frederick Douglass

The last ray of hope for preserving the Union peaceably expired at the assault upon Fort Sumter.
Abraham Lincoln

I foresee that the country will have to pass through a terrible ordeal, a necessary expiation, perhaps, of our national sins.
Robert E. Lee

People who are anxious to bring on war don't know what they are bargaining for; they don't see all the horrors that must accompany such an event.
